Analysis (1ST)

1830 OHIO Jednthan could not be 1850 ILL Jonathan as his 4 Ohio born children were born 1835 (M), 1837 (F), 1839 (F), 1841 (m).
All 8 of 1830 Jednthan's children born between 1800-1825, or between 1810 and 1830. His 40-50 yr. old wife could have given birth to all 8 in time allotment.

1830 OHIO Immanuel cannot (or perhaps is) be same as 1850 ILL Immanuel as Ohio Immanuel would have been born 1790-1800 where Ill. I was born 1804. Ill Immanuel had twin dau b. 1828 and a Wm. born 1830

1800 DELAWARE, Sussex Co, has at Broadkiln Hundred AARON & SARAH, both over 45 & children:- Mary, Adam, Sarah, Aaron Jr, Jonathan & perhaps Fowler (?). Notice absence of AARON, AARON JR. & ADAM in 1810, 1820, 1830 CENSUS. There is AARON in 1790 & 1800.

1830 Census shows 29 other DODD but no JONATHAN. Likely JEDNTHAN (cited both microfilm original + print) is misspelled. This Census also shows 27 DODDS.

1840 Fed Census shows only 5 DODD, & 4 DODDS in Vol I. None in Vol IV seem to apply.

 Names were gleaned from Printed Index. A perusal of the microfilm show all marked "I" as being illegible. Those marked "NA" were not attempted at this time.

Widely separated.

1850 7th Fed Census

Piatt Co., on west side of Sangamon River. Census practically illegible. Cursory glance shows most settlers in this census are farmers from Ohio, Virginia and Indiana largely. Found fewer than 1/2 dozen settlers from Delaware. There were no other Dodds on the West side of the Sangamon River.

5/20/83. I now believe John Edgar Dodd's father is John, son of Johnathan + Margaret. John Jr. (NO) may have been Johnathan, son of J + M.

EMANUEL DODD is a prominent member of the farming class in Piatt County, and a man who as a soldier and citizen has acted well his part in the battle of life. He is now located on section 23, Willow Branch Township, where he owns and operates one hundred and ninety-six acres of valuable land, deriving from its cultivation both pleasure and profit. He has been practically a resident of this county since the spring of 1856 and has grown from youth to middle age here. He is therefore well acquainted with the changes that have taken place and realizes to the full the advance of civilization in this part of the great Mississippi Valley.

The valorous conduct of Mr. Dodd when the country was in danger of disruption is not to be wondered at when we learn that one of his maternal ancestors was a Revolutionary soldier, and that love for the land of their birth has been a characteristic of both branches of the family. His parents, Jonathan and Margaret Dodd, were of English and German lineage and natives respectively of Delaware and Virginia. The father became a resident in Pickaway County, Ohio, at an early period of its settlement, and the mother accompanied her parents thither when about nine years old. She walked a part of the way from her native State and rode over the rest of the distance in a cart. After their marriage the parents continued to reside in the Buckeye State until 1843, when they came to Illinois, establishing themselves in Macon County. The husband died there August 30, 1855, and the following spring the widow with her children came to Piatt County. She is still living, her home being a half mile from Cisco, to which place she is able to walk, although she is now more than fourscore years of age. d 15 Nov 1894

In Pickaway County, Ohio, February 8, 1839, the eyes of Emanuel Dodd opened to the light of day. He is the eldest of the six surviving children in his father's family, the others being Jonathan, Thomas,* John, Mary (wife of George Kineson) and Isaiah. He was four years old when brought to this State and here he received his schooling, first under the subscription plan and later for a short time in public schools. The temple of learning in which he engaged in the pursuit of knowledge was a rude log structure, and the text books were not to be compared to those of the present day, but still embodied the principles of practical information and supplied the needs of the students.

August 8, 1862, the name of Emanuel Dodd was placed upon the muster roll of Company E, One Hundred and Seventh Illinois Infantry, and he became a member of the Western army in which he followed the leadership of Gens. Sherman, Thomas and others at different times. He fought at the siege of Knoxville, at Lookout Mountain, Dandridge, Loudon, Buzzard's Roost, Kingston, Nashville under Gen. Thomas, and at other points where the engagements were less serious in their results and influence. He was one of the great number who remained in the ranks from the beginning to the conclusion of their term of service, and upon whom devolved the most serious duties of the hour as far as bodily activity was concerned. To them, under efficient guidance, is due the united condition of the States, and it is but meet that they receive the gratitude of the Nation. Mr. Dodd was honorably discharged at Salisbury, N. C., and was mustered out of service at Camp Butler in July, 1865.

Since he returned to Piatt County and resumed the duties of civil life, Mr. Dodd has been called upon to serve in some official capacities. For several years he was Constable of Willow Branch Township, and in the spring of 1889 he was elected Justice of the Peace for four years. He is filling this station with credit to himself and to his constituents. He belongs to the Odd Fellows fraternity and to the Knights of Pythias, holding membership in the lodges at Cisco. In the business world his word is relied upon, and in society he is respected as his general intelligence and active interest in the welfare of this section demands. In politics he is a Democrat & he is numbered among the local workers. He has seen proper to remain a bachelor, but is none the less pleasant and companionable.

Luise (sic) Elisebth Johnson Sept. 1867 at Decatur, Ill. and that he was not previously married and his living children were John Eadker (sic) Dodd, b. Sept. 1868. Deduction: ~~Except for~~ Including military record (age 20 at enlistment Ag 1862, hence born 1842) doc are consistent on 1842 date until 1891 when trying to qualify for pension & he claims to be older & does so thereafter. Conclusion: because of fraudulent intent he lies about age, or in confusion he does not know

NOTE: John Jr. pvt CO E died at Richmond 1864 was born ca. 1840. & would have been age 22 at enlistment. [Why is he Jr.?] Other doc. — shows he also claimed to be 20.

(11) Re Ida J - widow

Doc. date Oct 7, 1922 from Joplin Mo. to Commissioner of Pensions

1922 Subj - widow Ida J. Wood : Has claimant by her conduct forfeited her right to pension

Preliminary investigation lasting whole day + most of the evening. (1. Asked taxi driver who said she was not nice lady + given to stepping out. (2. City marshall said Ida always considered as immoral but could never catch her at anything. Neighbors talked about but no evidence of anything to hold in court. (3. City marshall talked to neighbor Mr. Brown who invited investigator to see for himself. Reports different men come to house - to see pensioner or a girl in the house - of loose morals - he cannot say. (4. Other neighbors say her reputation is very bad. Belief she is immoral - but no proof. Said to have always been immoral even while soldier (John) was alive. Attends to her own business - not quarrelsome. Cannot find out who wrote letters. Lives in own house, alone - no man living there. Frequent visitor is girl of bad reputation. People come + go during night - neighbors think for illicit purposes. A half witted man named Battle Ax Williams works daytime in Ida's yard. A Dave Edington, a rounder, visited frequently in daytime - on real estate business; he is now very religious & said to have reformed. Denies sexual relationship

Ida lives alone - is rather sharp. No beans have been spilled. No one going to swear to have had illicit relations with her. ‡

Jan 15, 1879 with great violence struck her a number of violent blows and knocked her down and violently kicked and otherwise ill-treated her and afterwards on same day struck her with a stick of stove wood. On numerous occasions used toward her and the children the most obscene profane and opprobrious language rendering her life miserable. Jan 15, 1879 he threatened to kill her and the children as had other times - and fears for herself and children. A few years after their marriage vows he commenced the excessive use of intoxicating liquor and for last 2 years has been habitually drunk and constantly been on sprees - intoxicated almost continuously and wholly unfit for his occupation - very quarrelsome and ill treats his family while drunk, using abusive languange and opprobrious epithets rendering condition intolerable and her life burdensome. Because of extreme cruelty was compelled to withdraw her children from this house. . . . . be divorced and forever freed from the bonds of matrimony - care custody and education of children may be awarded to her.

(Document further states in a notation that John Dodd was summoned by Sheriff of Piatt Co. to appear before Circuit Court in Monticello on first Mon of Feb., 1879 to answer to Louise E. Dodd for divorce but because that he was not found on Jan. 24, 1879 to receive the summons.)

(Further research - from Census, Land Deeds, and Civil War File indicate the divorce did not go thru at this time: 1. 1880 cenus - they were a family in Willow Branch Twp., Piatt Co;2. 1880 -together they sold the orig. Jonathan Dodd, Sr. 20 A timber back to Kile; 3. In the mid-80's each bought town lots (Louisa, several) in Cisco but separately. 4. John's Civil War File shows the divorce was finalized in Neosho County, Kansas on July 20, 1893. That same year she married Thos. J. Ellis, and lived in Chanute (Neosho Co.) by 1900; John Dodd married Ida Josephine Smith June 27, 1903 at Columbus (Cherokee Co), Ks. (who herself was divorced from Wm. S. Foster) since Apr. 20, 1893 at Cassville, Mo.) Census 1900 Aurora, Mo. shows Ida as wife; they lived in Aurora until the old soldier's death, 14 Jan, 1918. Ida, receipiant of his soldier's pension, died 1951, in her 80's.

To the Honorable Judge of the Circuit Court of Piatt County in the State of Illinois

In Chancery sitting.

Your Oratrix Louisa E. Dodd of Piatt County and State of Illinois respectfully represents unto your honor, that she is an actual resident of said County of Piatt and is now and has been a resident of the State of Illinois for fourteen years last past; that on 6th day of November AD 1867 at Decatur in the County of Macon and State of Illinois she was lawfully married to one John Dodd and from that time until this 16th day of January AD 1879 lived and cohabited with him as his wife and during all that time faithfully performed all her duties and obligations as a wife, bearing with her husband's faults and errors and striving to make their home and family comfortable and happy —

Your oratrix further represents that as the issue of such marriage she had had by the said John Dodd two children viz Ida L Dodd aged 10 years and John E Dodd aged 8 years and that in consequence of his habits and language hereinafter set forth, the said John Dodd is a person wholly unfit to have the care custody and education of said children

Your oratrix further represents, that the said John Dodd wholly disregarding his marriage vows and obligations toward your oratrix has ever since said marriage been guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty toward your oratrix, that is to say that the said John Dodd on divers days and times since said marriage has beaten, struck, kicked and choked her and has neglected to furnish her and her said children with the proper and necessary food and clothing and particularly that on or about the 20th day of June 1878 at their house the said John Dodd struck your oratrix a violent blow with his fist, and kicked her and otherwise ~~wise~~ greatly injuring your oratrix and then put your oratrix out of their house and locked the door upon her — that afterwards ~~that~~ on or about the 31st day of December 1878 the said John Dodd struck your oratrix three violent blows with his fists — and afterwards on the 8th day of January 1879 the said John Dodd struck your oratrix a blow with his fist and again to wit on the 15th day of January 1879 the said said John Dodd with great violence struck your oratrix a number of violent blows and knocked your oratrix down and then kicked your oratrix many violent kicks and otherwise ill treated her and after-extreme cruelty she was compelled to withdraw with her children from their house—

Forasmuch as your oratrix is without remedy in the premises, except in a Court of equity: and to the end that the said John Dodd who is made party defendant to this bill may be required to make full and direct answer to the same but not under oath the oath being hereby waived, that your oratrix may be divorced and forever freed from the bonds of matrimony now existing between her and the said John Dodd, that the care custody and education of the said Children may be award to your oratrix and that your oratrix may have such other and further relief in the premises as equity may require and to your honor shall seem meet Wilferd Cecil Dodd in 1984 is 75? born & bred on the old Dodd place (prob. place of Jonathan Jr.) in Macon Co. 2 mi. S. of Cised (on Cronizer Cem Rd) & 1/4-3/4 mi. W. The turn was west on this road at the Old Round Barn; thinks Dock [Emanuel] Dodd (~~John~~?) may have farmed this place; was a gambler and left state for parts unknown to him. Jonathan Jr. place was in Orean Twp, Macon Co. & may have incorparated Jonathan Sr. old place of 1853-5. Someone cheated Jonathan Jr. d. 1907 of his farm on his death bed. Who?

Wilferd Cecil protests "his mark" X – says Jonathan Sr. could write. Prob. is ref. to Jr. as he did not know existence of Sr. relationship until I told him.

Dugan (Dogan) must be Isaiah; m. to Elizabeth – or Aunt Liz, Lizzie, Libby (remembered by Wanda Craig). Killed pulling stumps. Liz lived to be 100.

he improved. He raised a family of seven chil- none of whom are now living. Some died here, some moved to the west, where they died. He William Swank, who was bound to him, and now at Commercial Point, aged sixty-seven years. A ter married John Stinson, who became a school er, and taught on Ballard's place, in 1812.

lliam Seeds emigrated from Pennsylvania, in 1819, ettled on land west of and adjoining that belonging bert Seeds, in the north part of the township. The efore he came he sent three of his children to Ohio, Robert, and Elizabeth, the oldest not more than n years of age. They accomplished the long jour- n safety, their only means of conveyance being a horse, which each rode alternately. The children lliam Seeds were: James, John, Woods, Robert, beth, Henry, Isabel, Harvey, Samuel, Mary Ann, Cyrus. But two of them, Woods and Cyrus, now n this State. One lives in Iowa; the rest are all sed. William Seeds died in 1839, aged seventy- . At the time of his death he owned five hundred inety acres of land.

liam Mires came about the same time as the psons, in 1800, and settled on the Ballard place. ved there but a short time, and died September 22, He was buried in the cemetery on Thompson's None of the family live in this vicinity, and nearly dead.

bert Seeds came from Pennsylvania, in 1803 or His father traded property in that State for eleven ed acres in Ohio, a part lying in Franklin and a n Pickaway county. His father came soon after, ied at his son's house. Robert Seeds had eight en, of whom five are now living in this township, Mrs. Isabel Beaver, Mrs. Martha Snyder, Moses John Seeds, and Hannah Redmon. He built the rick house in the township, about 1816 or 1818, ng the brick himself. This house was torn down a ears since. Moses Seeds lives a short distance from e of the old house.

ward Fitzgerald was born in 1761, and came to in 1804, and bought seven or eight hundred acres d in Scioto, about a mile north of Commercial a part of which is now owned by George Dennis is brother. Mr. Fitzgerald was a Pennsylvanian. ad three sons: Thomas, John, and Abraham. At ath, in 1814, his sons inherited his property, which fterwards sold, and moved to Iowa. None of the now live here. George Dennis, and his brother, , bought two hundred and fifteen acres of this rty, which they now occupy. George married Susan , and Elisha married Elizabeth Haynes.

orge West came from Virginia about 1804, and t about nine hundred acres of the Butler survey, southeast part of the township, and on the Scioto He had eleven children, of whom nine came to ity. They were: Daniel, Peter, Frederick, John, e, Elizabeth, Mary, Sarah, Barbara, Margaret, and rine. George died young; Frederick went into the and served in the war of 1812, came home broken down in health, and died. On the death of Mr. West the property was divided between the children, each receiving one hundred acres. Seven made improvements, and two sold to the others. Daniel died in 1861, in Harrison township, and Margaret, in Jackson. The rest, with the exception of Peter, went west, where they died. George West died in 182–.

Peter West came from Virginia in 1804, at the same time as his father's family. He remained on the east side of the river about five years, and in 1809 settled on one hundred acres belonging to his father, in Scioto township. He married Elizabeth Bartley, and had seven children, of whom five are now living—Mary married John Seaburn; Sarah married Mason Cleveland; John married Elizabeth Howe, and lives a widower, in Iowa; Elizabeth married Luke Wilkins, and lives in the township; Margaret married J. W. Stiverson, and lives on the Peter West homestead. Mr. West died April 6, 1840, aged fifty-eight. His wife, Elizabeth, died June 1, 1850, aged seventy-two.

Edward and Isaac Williams came about 1806, and settled on the west bank of Scioto river, on a part of the Richard C. Anderson survey. Edward built a log cabin on land now owned by Philomel Gray, and which is still standing. He was twice married, and had seven children, all of whom lived to maturity. By his first wife he had three children, one of whom married John Young. The children by his second wife were Mary, Elizabeth, William, and Josephine. The latter married Dr. Jones, of Columbus, where she now lives. Mr. Williams died in 1831.

Isaac Williams had nine children, of whom four are now living. One son, Vincent, lives in Madison county. The others are not in the vicinity. Two live in Illinois.

Jacob Widener came from Virginia in 1802, and first settled below Chillicothe. In 1807 he moved to this township, and bought five hundred acres of land of the Williams brothers, which he improved and cleared. A part of the house now occupied by his daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Engle, about a mile north of the Bloomfield pike, was built by him. Soon after his purchase he sold two hundred and fifty acres to Mr. Rollins. Two children were born to him—Elizabeth and Rebecca. Elizabeth died in Illinois in 1878. Rebecca married Jacob Engle, who died in 1835. She still occupies the old homestead. Jacob Widener died in 1835.

The Choates were early settlers along the river—about 1808. One was a justice of the peace during his residence here. None of the family now remain.

Mr. Goreley came to Scioto about 1808, and settled on Edward Williams' place. A ford near where he lived is called Goreley's ford. Land was leased by him, but he did more toward keeping the early settlers shod than he did toward farming. He was the first shoemaker in the township. None of his name now reside here, although he raised quite a family.

James Johnson came to Ohio, from Virginia, in 1808, and settled on Darby creek, in the west part of the township. For many years he rented land, but before he died he bought a part of the farm now owned by Nelson Rush.

who lives in Madison county. This family now owns a large amount of land, and are extensive farmers.

Hezekiah Brown, from near Winchester, Virginia, came to Ohio, a single man, in 1812. He remained one year in Perry township, and then returned to Virginia. Some five years later he settled permanently in Fayette county, Ohio, where he married Mary Williams, who is still living. Mr. Brown died January 28, 1875. There were eleven children in the family, six of whom are now living, and one, William, who married Juliet Ann Timmons, lives in Perry township.

Mrs. Margaret Wahn came to Pickaway county in 1830. Mrs. William Brown is her only living child.

Jonathan Taylor, of Washington county, Pennsylvania, came to Ohio, in 1814, where he remained, perhaps, one year, and then returned to Pennsylvania, where he resided until 1841, in the fall of which year he located in Monroe township, where he yet resides. Mrs. Taylor died, December 31, 1869. Of the children, one lives in Perry township, Francis Marion, who married Ellen King. The remainder are: Phillip, Sarah, Caleb, Jonathan (who married Mary A. Bennett, and lives in Monroe township), and Ann, who married Abraham Longerbone; both live in Monroe township.

John Hale married Mary Hays, and lived near Harper's Ferry, Virginia, where the following children were born: Shepard, Margaret, Sarah, John, Elizabeth (Mrs. Noble Porter), Mary, Thomas, and Nancy. At, or near, the close of the war of 1812, the family settled in Deer Creek township, Ross county, where the parents died, the mother May 15, 1833, and the father some few years later.

James Dunlap, grandfather of Robert B., Jesse, and Mrs. Dr. Wilson, who now reside near New Holland village, was of Irish birth, and came to America prior to the war of the Revolution. He settled at Richmond, Virginia, where he married Rebecca Blackburn, and where were born a numerous family. Early in the present century the family removed to Ohio, locating near Chillicothe, then a mere hamlet of, perhaps, half a dozen cabins. John Dunlap, son of the above, married Elizabeth Britton, and, in 1818, located in Perry township. Here Mrs. Dunlap died, April 13, 1854, and her husband, May 21, 1857. Their children were: Abigail, who married James Brown, is now widowed, and lives principally in Perry township; Robert B. has been twice marr'e l—h.s present wife was Mary McCrea; Elizabeth, who married William Mahoffiin, deceased; James, who married Mary Wilson, was killed in a well; Letitia, married Dr. James F. Wilson; Harriet, who married Noble Hubbell, deceased; Lorana, who married Alexander McCoy, and lives in Ross county; Joseph, who married Anna Turner, deceased; Jesse, who married Harriet J. McComb, and John, who married Hattie Brown, now resides in Woodhull, Illinois.

Isaac Gray, Josiah Lewis, and Barzilla Costin Atkin, all of Worcester county, Maryland, came to Ohio, locating in Perry township, in May, 1818. Mr. Gray settled on land now occupied by Joseph Kirkpatrick, and died on the farm now owned by his son Jesse, in about 1859. Mrs. Gray died in 1864. The children were: Benjamin (now deceased); Jesse, who married Nancy Beekman, and lives in Perry; they have ten children living—one died in the army; Nancy, Unettie, and Percy, who are deceased; Elizabeth, who married George W. Gooley, and now lives in New Holland.

Joseph Collins, a native of Delaware, settled in Ross county, in about 1790, where he died in about 1816. His wife was Clara Timmons. John M., son of the above-named, married Eunice Timmons, and located in Perry township, in March, 1819, upon the farm now occupied by his son, Joshua H. Joshua located in Monroe township, as did Elizabeth, who married Joseph Timmons. Isaac settled in Monroe. Andrew, who married Elizabeth Timmons, lives at Atlanta; and Hester, who married Salathel Timmons, lives in Perry township.

Conjecture: father of Sarah M. Collins
d. 1854 de. 15 b. 1823, mar. John Burton Johnson 1840, de 8

Isaac Brown, of Virginia, came to Perry early in its settlement, and with him came a widowed mother and brothers and sisters. He married Lavina Michaels, by whom two children were borne—Eleanor, (Mrs. J. H. Collins), and Thomas, now deceased.

Philip Michael was another early settler.

Jacob Gooley, who was originally from London county, Virginia, settled in Perry township in 1827. His wife was Margaret Shively. Two of the children now reside in the township—Catharine (Mrs. Daniel Lewis), and George W., who lives in New Holland village.

Moses Konns came from Virginia to Ohio in 1836, and tarried, for perhaps one year, in Ross county, and then removed to Perry township and purchased the property he now occupies. His first wife was Lucretia Timmons, who died November 18, 1856, and his present wife, whom he married December 3, 1870, was Comfort Wapels. His children are: Millie A., Mary E., Virginia (deceased), Sarah, Stephen, Lafayette, Wesley, and Moses.

Elias Ater, who is a descendant of William Ater, of Deer Creek township, married Permelia Davis, by whom were borne the following children: Mary, who married Harrison Plummer; Gideon, who married Miss Hoskins; Catharine, who married Samuel Gaver; Allen, and Stephen D.

Many names of early settlers are recalled: Reuben Lloyd, Jacob and Samuel Hasselton, Joseph McClintock, Isaac Vincent, James Cochran, William Penniwell, Reuben Simpson, Frederick Funk, John Struvey, James and Abram Kirkpatrick, George Tollman, and Abraham Tanquarry.

EARLY EVENTS.

The writer collected a number of items for this section, but as he is unable to satisfy himself in relation to their reliability, they are, for the most part, omitted. The first house in New Holland village was built by a man named Fleming, and stood near the site of the present flouring mill of Messrs. Hanley & Bro. George W. Gooley says the first brick block in the village was built by George Bohrer, and stood where is now the McCafferty block. The date of its erection was not far from 1840. Andrew Motter constructed a log house on the site of the present Union house, at an early date. Mot-

Ohio, and were mustered out of the U. S. service August 15th, 1861, at Camp Goddard. During their service the loss was three men—one by drowning and two by disease. As shown by the official record, twenty-nine Jerome Township soldiers served in Company G of this regiment, organized at Plain City and commanded by Captain Thomas J. Haynes.

It was one of the first regiments to respond to the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 men. Every soldier of Jerome Township who served in this regiment reënlisted in the three years' service and a number of them were killed or died in the army. Jerome Township furnished her full quota under the first call, and every call thereafter. The 17th Regiment organized for three years had a distinguished service and served in the Army of the Cumberland throughout the war, participating in many decisive battles, but it seems that no Jerome Township soldiers served in that regiment. The losses by death were 232 in the three years' service.

THIRTIETH OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.
THREE YEARS' SERVICE.

The 30th Ohio Volunteer Infantry is named as one of the three hundred fighting regiments, and is well entitled to that honor for distinguished service.

Company E of the 30th Ohio Infantry was organized by Captain Elijah Warner at Jerome, Union County, Ohio, in the month of August, 1861, and marched thence to Camp Chase, a distance of twenty miles, where it arrived on the 19th day of August. On the 29th the company was mustered into the United States service, with the following commissioned officers: Elijah Warner, Captain; Henry R. Brinkerhoff, First Lieutenant, and Henry Hensel, Second Lieutenant.

On the 30th the regiment was ordered into the field, and on the 2nd of September arrived at Clarksburg, W. Va., then moved forward to Weston, where it received its first outfit of camp and garrison equipage. On September 6th the regiment joined General Rosecrans at Sutton Heights, leaving four companies—D, F, G, and I—at this place and two—C and E—at Big Birch Bottom. The remainder of the regiment moved forward and on the evening of the 10th discerned the enemy near Gawley River, at Carnifex Ferry, where a sharp encounter ensued. Night coming on, ended the battle. Early on the following morning it was discovered that the enemy had evacuated their position and retraced across the river.

Colonel Ewing was the first man to enter the deserted fortifications. He found, amid a multitude of camp and garrison spoils, two fine French dress swords, one bearing the coat of arms of Napoleon I, and a stand of colors bearing the following inscription:

"FLOYD'S BRIGADE."

"The Price of Liberty is the Blood of the Brave."

The regiment was mustered into the United States service at Camp Chase, Ohio, on the 28th day of August, 1861, for three years, under Colonel John Groesbeck, who was soon succeeded by Colonel Hugh Ewing. The regiment served in West Virginia in detachments until August, 1862. On the 16th of that month the regiment started to join the army in Eastern Virginia. The right wing reported for duty at General Pope's headquarters on the 26th, and after the engagement at Centerville the left wing joined the right, having been under fire but not engaged with the musketry in the battle at this place.

On the 2nd of September the regiment was relieved from duty at General Pope's headquarters and joined its brigade—the First—at Upton Hills. On the 7th it moved to Frederick City, Md., and on the 14th arrived at South Mountain, where a severe struggle with the enemy took place, with a loss of eighteen men killed and forty-eight wounded. In this engagement Company E suffered most severely, having one killed and six wounded.

In the battle of Antietam the Thirtieth, lacking proper support, was thrown back into slight confusion and compelled to fall back. It lost three officers killed and two wounded, eight men killed and thirty-seven wounded. The National colors were torn in fourteen places by the enemy's balls, and two color-bearers, Sergeants Carter and Nathan J. White, fell dead on the field. A stand of colors was rescued on this occasion by David McKim of Company E.

On the 10th of October the Thirtieth moved into West Virginia, and on the 13th of November went into camp near Cannelton. A few weeks later it started on a march into Logan County, returning with seventeen prisoners and seventy-five horses. In January, 1863, it moved down the Ohio and Mississippi to join General Grant's army, and on arriving at Helena, Ark., was assigned to the Third Brigade, Second Division of the Fifteenth Army Corps. On the 21st it landed at Young's Point, and for a few weeks worked on the canal at that place. In March it moved to the relief of a gunboat in Steel's Bayou, returning to Young's Point on the 28th.

On the 29th of April the regiment embarked on the R. B. Hamilton, and with other troops engaged in a demonstration on Haines' Bluffs. In May it joined in the movement upon Vicksburg, and from the 20th until the surrender of this stronghold the regiment was constantly engaged either in fatigue or picket duty or in assaulting the enemy's works. The loss of the Thirtieth during the siege was one commissioned officer killed and six wounded, six men killed and forty-eight wounded. After the surrender of Vicksburg the regiment pursued Johnson to Jackson, and upon the evacuation of that place returned and went into camp at Black River.

On the 26th of September it moved with Sherman via Memphis to Chattanooga, and on the 25th of October participated in the assault upon Mission Ridge, losing thirty-nine men killed and wounded.

In November the Thirtieth followed in pursuit of the retreating rebels, returning to Bridgeport, Ala., on the 19th of December. During this time the men were compelled to subsist off the country, with the exception of two days' rations issued on the 29th day of November.

In January, 1864, the regiment reënlisted, and after the furlough home joined Sherman's forces at Kingston, Ga., on the 20th day of May. On the 23rd it started on the march through Dallas and Acworth, and on the 19th of June arrived at the foot of Kenesaw Mountain. During this march the Thirtieth was almost continuously under fire. It took an active part in the battle on the 26th, losing thirty-five men killed and wounded. On July 2nd the regiment moved toward Atlanta, and on the 22nd was attacked and thrown into some confusion at first, but soon rallied and succeeded in repulsing the enemy, not, however, without considerable loss. On the 28th the regiment gallantly stood its ground and resisted four successive attacks of the enemy, losing thirty men killed and wounded. Under its fire the foe forsook a stand of colors and in its immediate front 105 dead rebels were found.

The Thirtieth was transferred to the First Brigade on the 5th of August, and on the 29th the non-veterans were mustered out. On the 31st the rebels attacked the line of the First Brigade, but were repulsed, the Thirtieth losing in this encounter twenty-five men killed and wounded.

On the 2nd of September Jonesboro was evacuated by the enemy, the regiment pursuing them to Lovejoy's Station. After spending several weeks in camp at East Point, the Thirtieth followed in pursuit of Hood's army into Alabama, returned to Atlanta, then marched to Fort McAllister and took part in the successful assault on that place.

After the fall of Savannah the regiment passed through the Carolinas, having a sharp engagement with Johnson at Bentonville, and frequent skirmishes with the enemy. It arrived at Goldsboro March 24th, 1865; then proceeded to Raleigh on the 14th of April, and aided in the capture of Johnson's army.

The Thirtieth marched to Washington via Richmond, and after passing in review, moved to Louisville, Ky., and thence to Little Rock, Ark. Here the regiment remained in camp until mustered out August 21st, 1865, having participated in twenty engagements and having its colors shot in almost every battle.

The regiment had a most remarkable service, as it participated in great battles in the States of Virginia, Mississippi, Georgia, Tennessee, Maryland and North Carolina. They marched and were transported by water and railroads several thousand miles.

Of the commanders of the regiment, Colonel John Groesbeck was transferred to the 39th O. V. I.; Colonel Hugh Ewing and Colonel Theodore Jones were both promoted to Brigadier-Generals; Lieutenant Henry Brinkerhoff was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel of the Second Mississippi Regiment, U. S. C. T. He remained in the Regular Army after the close of the war, had a long and honorable service, and was retired with the rank of Colonel but a few years ago.

Captain Elijah Warner was promoted to Major and James D. Bain was promoted to the Captaincy of Company E.

The total losses in the regiment, killed, died of wounds and disease, as shown by the official record, were two hundred and seventy-seven.

CASUALTIES

One hundred and two soldiers served in Company E of Jerome Township, and the loss, killed and died of wounds and disease, was thirty-two, or about 33 per cent of the total enlistments. Many others were wounded and a number were prisoners of war.

Dear Melton and Evelyn:

Thank you for your correspondence regarding the Grubb lineage you have received from various and sundry places. I prepared a Christmas card to send you but wanted to mail it later as I thought to check some random data in my considerable notebook of documents, etc., on our subject.

For reasons, poor and good, I had put off working on genealogy - many branches, some dating to the 1600s - for a very long time. The reasons were mostly good since July of 1999 when I was hospitalized for pneumonia, and again in October for total knee replacement from which I am still recovering. Thankfully, I am now able to walk without a cane.

A random perusal of my notes show things which might be of interest to you in your search for the parents of Benjamin Grubb, lost in the Civil War at Vicksburg. I twice visited his grave marker at the National Military Cemetery here, but have never been able to prove his parentage:

1. A Peter Grubb was in the Revolutionary War - Col. 8th Bat., 1776 , Lancaster, Pa. He died in Colombus, Ohio, 28 Oct. 1830.
2. A Peter Grubb located in Ross Co., Ohio before 1800. Ross County was later carved from Washington County.
3. A Peter Grubb located in Ohio - Wash. Co., Waterford Twp. in 1800, 1810, 1820.
4. A William Grubb was located in Logan Co., Zane Twp in 1820, 1830. He is probably the William who laid out [Zane Twp] Middleburg in 1832 with his brother Levi.LOGAN CO. HIST.
5. 1840 Census for Ohio, Logan Co. Zane Twp. p.12/13 shows William Grubb age 60-70 in agric. and manufacture/trade, and a Benjamin Grubb age 20-30 in manufacture/trade. Remember our Benjamin was a chairmaker in 1840 living in this same township. I think they may be father and son.
6. Also living in Logan Co (1820 census) were Andrew and Martha Grubb - deacon of Tharp's Run Baptist Church (1 mile west of Zanesfield)-formerly of King's CreekBaptist Church.
7. My data shows that our William H. Grubb was discharged from Civil War 29 Dec. 1864 at Fort McAllister, Ga.

NOTE ON AMOS GREEN(E), FATHER OF OUR MATTIE L. GRUBB:
Oct. 1991 while at Ohio State Library, Colombus, Oh. I found some family corroboration for what I had earlier deduced myself from reading 1860 Ohio Census Union Co. Troy Twp. : namely, that Ebenezer Greene b. 1801 in N.Y. and wife Mary M. b. 1806 in N.Y. was family # 1251 living on a farm next to Amos b. 1828 and Sarah [Cole] Greene as family #1250 Amos and Sarah Green(e) were, of course, parents of our Mattie L. Grubb, Eureka; see pg. 1242 -1243 of Ohio, Union Co. 1860 census.

At this point, I am inclined to think that the parents of Benjamin Grubb, our ancestor, may well have been William and wife (unknown) who migrated to Logan County, Ohio about 1806 along with the Quaker Skidmores of Culpepper Court House, Va. Do you suppose the Grubbs of the same place in Va. were Quakers, also? I shall consult the Hinshaw work on this. Trust all is well with you. Cousin Gladys

UNION Co., OHIO

Ohio, and were mustered out of the U. S. service August 15th, 1861, at Camp Goddard. During their service the loss was three men—one by drowning and two by disease. As shown by the official record, twenty-nine Jerome Township soldiers served in Company G of this regiment, organized at Plain City and commanded by Captain Thomas J. Haynes.

It was one of the first regiments to respond to the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 men. Every soldier of Jerome Township who served in this regiment reënlisted in the three years' service and a number of them were killed or died in the army. Jerome Township furnished her full quota under the first call, and every call thereafter. The 17th Regiment organized for three years had a distinguished service and served in the Army of the Cumberland throughout the war, participating in many decisive battles, but it seems that no Jerome Township soldiers served in that regiment. The losses by death were 232 in the three years' service.

THIRTIETH OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.
THREE YEARS' SERVICE.

B.C. &
Wm Grub

The 30th Ohio Volunteer Infantry is named as one of the three hundred fighting regiments, and is well entitled to that honor for distinguished service.

Company E of the 30th Ohio Infantry was organized by Captain Elijah Warner at Jerome, Union County, Ohio, in the month of August, 1861, and marched thence to Camp Chase, a distance of twenty miles, where it arrived on the 19th day of August. On the 29th the company was mustered into the United States service, with the following commissioned officers: Elijah Warner, Captain; Henry R. Brinkerhoff, First Lieutenant, and Henry Hensel, Second Lieutenant.

On the 30th the regiment was ordered into the field, and on the 2nd of September arrived at Clarksburg, W. Va., then moved forward to Weston, where it received its first outfit of camp and garrison equipage. On September 6th the regiment joined General Rosecrans at Sutton Heights, leaving four companies—D, F, G, and I—at this place and two—C and E—at

Big Birch Bottom. The remainder of the regiment moved forward and on the evening of the 10th discerned the enemy near Gawley River, at Carnifex Ferry, where a sharp encounter ensued. Night coming on, ended the battle. Early on the following morning it was discovered that the enemy had evacuated their position and retraced across the river.

Colonel Ewing was the first man to enter the deserted fortifications. He found, amid a multitude of camp and garrison spoils, two fine French dress swords, one bearing the coat of arms of Napoleon I, and a stand of colors bearing the following inscription:

"FLOYD'S BRIGADE."

"The Price of Liberty is the Blood of the Brave."

The regiment was mustered into the United States service at Camp Chase, Ohio, on the 28th day of August, 1861, for three years, under Colonel John Groesbeck, who was soon succeeded by Colonel Hugh Ewing. The regiment served in West Virginia in detachments until August, 1862. On the 16th of that month the regiment started to join the army in Eastern Virginia. The right wing reported for duty at General Pope's headquarters on the 26th, and after the engagement at Centerville the left wing joined the right, having been under fire but not engaged with the musketry in the battle at this place.

On the 2nd of September the regiment was relieved from duty at General Pope's headquarters and joined its brigade—the First—at Upton Hills. On the 7th it moved to Frederick City, Md., and on the 14th arrived at South Mountain, where a severe struggle with the enemy took place, with a loss of eighteen men killed and forty-eight wounded. In this engagement Company E suffered most severely, having one killed and six wounded.

In the battle of Antietam the Thirtieth, lacking proper support, was thrown back into slight confusion and compelled to fall back. It lost three officers killed and two wounded, eight men killed and thirty-seven wounded. The National colors were torn in fourteen places by the enemy's balls, and two color-bearers, Sergeants Carter and Nathan J. White, fell dead on the field. A stand of colors was rescued on this occasion by David McKim of Company E.

On the 10th of October the Thirtieth moved into West Virginia, and on the 13th of November went into camp near Cannelton. A few weeks later it started on a march into Logan County, returning with seventeen prisoners and seventy-five horses. In January, 1863, it moved down the Ohio and Mississippi to join General Grant's army, and on arriving at Helena, Ark., was assigned to the Third Brigade, Second Division of the Fifteenth Army Corps. On the 21st it landed at Young's Point, and for a few weeks worked on the canal at that place. In March it moved to the relief of a gunboat in Steel's Bayou, returning to Young's Point on the 28th.

On the 29th of April the regiment embarked on the R. B. Hamilton, and with other troops engaged in a demonstration on Haines' Bluffs. In May it joined in the movement upon Vicksburg, and from the 20th until the surrender of this stronghold the regiment was constantly engaged either in fatigue or picket duty or in assaulting the enemy's works. The loss of the Thirtieth during the siege was one commissioned officer killed and six wounded, six men killed and forty-eight wounded. After the surrender of Vicksburg the regiment pursued Johnson to Jackson, and upon the evacuation of that place returned and went into camp at Black River.

On the 26th of September it moved with Sherman via Memphis to Chattanooga, and on the 25th of October participated in the assault upon Mission Ridge, losing thirty-nine men killed and wounded.

In November the Thirtieth followed in pursuit of the retreating rebels, returning to Bridgeport, Ala., on the 19th of December. During this time the men were compelled to subsist off the country, with the exception of two days' rations issued on the 29th day of November.

In January, 1864, the regiment reënlisted, and after the furlough home joined Sherman's forces at Kingston, Ga., on the 20th day of May. On the 23rd it started on the march through Dallas and Acworth, and on the 19th of June arrived at the foot of Kenesaw Mountain. During this march the Thirtieth was almost continuously under fire. It took an active part in the battle on the 26th, losing thirty-five men killed and wounded. On July 2nd the regiment moved toward Atlanta, and on the 22nd was attacked and thrown into some confusion at first, but soon rallied and succeeded in repulsing the enemy, not, however, without considerable loss. On the 28th the regiment gallantly stood its ground and resisted four successive attacks of the enemy, losing thirty men killed and wounded. Under its fire the foe forsook a stand of colors and in its immediate front 105 dead rebels were found.

The Thirtieth was transferred to the First Brigade on the 5th of August, and on the 29th the non-veterans were mustered out. On the 31st the rebels attacked the line of the First Brigade, but were repulsed, the Thirtieth losing in this encounter twenty-five men killed and wounded.

On the 2nd of September Jonesboro was evacuated by the enemy, the regiment pursuing them to Lovejoy's Station. After spending several weeks in camp at East Point, the Thirtieth followed in pursuit of Hood's army into Alabama, returned to Atlanta, then marched to Fort McAllister and took part in the successful assault on that place.

After the fall of Savannah the regiment passed through the Carolinas, having a sharp engagement with Johnson at Bentonville, and frequent skirmishes with the enemy. It arrived at Goldsboro March 24th, 1865; then proceeded to Raleigh on the 14th of April, and aided in the capture of Johnson's army.

The Thirtieth marched to Washington via Richmond, and after passing in review, moved to Louisville, Ky., and thence to Little Rock, Ark. Here the regiment remained in camp until mustered out August 21st, 1865, having participated in twenty engagements and having its colors shot in almost every battle.

The regiment had a most remarkable service, as it participated in great battles in the States of Virginia, Mississippi, Georgia, Tennessee, Maryland and North Carolina. They marched and were transported by water and railroads several thousand miles.

Of the commanders of the regiment, Colonel John Groesbeck was transferred to the 39th O. V. I.; Colonel Hugh Ewing and Colonel Theodore Jones were both promoted to Brigadier-Generals; Lieutenant Henry Brinkerhoff was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel of the Second Mississippi Regiment, U. S. C. T. He remained in the Regular Army after the close of the war, had a long and honorable service, and was retired with the rank of Colonel but a few years ago.

Captain Elijah Warner was promoted to Major and James D. Bain was promoted to the Captaincy of Company E.

The total losses in the regiment, killed, died of wounds and disease, as shown by the official record, were two hundred and seventy-seven.

One hundred and two soldiers served in Company E of Jerome Township, and the loss, killed and died of wounds and disease, was thirty-two, or about 33 per cent of the total enlistments. Many others were wounded and a number were prisoners of war.

32ND REGIMENT, OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.
THREE YEARS' SERVICE.

The 32nd Ohio Infantry was organized during the summer of 1861, under Colonel T. C. Ford, and was one of the first regiments to answer the call of the President for three years' service.

Company B of this regiment was recruited in Union and Champaign Counties, and was mustered into the service at Camp Chase August 9th, 1861, with the following commissioned officers: W. A. Palmer, Captain; A. B. Parmeter, First Lieutenant, and J. B. Whelpley, Second Lieutenant. It joined the regiment at Camp Bartley, near Mansfield.

Four soldiers of Jerome Township served in Company B of this regiment — John P. McDowell, Robert N. McDowell, John B. Robinson and Henry M. Converse. Robert N. McDowell died in the service, and John P. McDowell and John
